

Captain

Captain

I'd like to be the Captain of a great big ship,

And give all my passengers a lovely trip.

I'd take them over oceans and across the seven seas,
To call at harbours on the way to the antipodes.

Antipodes is pronounced as an-tippo-deez, meaning places on the opposite side of the world.
